

Vendor Prefix

Using vendor prefixes is a way for browser to add support for new CSS features before those features are fully supported in all browsers.

Major browsers use the following prefixes:

- webkit- (Chrome, Safari)
- moz- (Firefox)
- o- (Opera)
- ms- (Internet Explorer and Microsoft Edge)